NOVEMBER'S EAGLE SCOUT OF THE MONTH

November's Eagle Scout of the Month is Preston H. from Troop 191 in Fort Collins. Preston's Eagle Scout project consisted of building and delivering soccer goals and securing other equipment for two schools in Kenya through Compassion Soccer Gear. "I designed collapsible soccer goals that fit into duffel bags and collected balls, cones and jerseys," Preston said. What makes him proud of the project is how complicated it was and how well he was able to overcome issues and deadlines. Preston says, "My Eagle Scout project helped me grow by teaching me how to work under pressure and deadlines, and taught me a lot about delegating the building jobs." Preston is currently a sophomore at Fossil Ridge High School, he is involved in his church's youth group and is a bass player in their youth praise band. Preston's favorite merit badge was Wilderness Survival, as he enjoyed making the overnight shelter. Preston has plans to pursue a career as an Entrepreneur or Industrial Designer because he likes taking ideas and making them a reality. Great job Preston and best wishes in your future.
