July's Eagle Scout of the Month & E-newsletter

July’s Eagle Scout of the Month is Tanner H. from Troop 138 in Laramie, Wyoming. Tanner was selected as the winner of the Western Region Eagle Scout Service Project of the Year.

Tanner completed his Eagle Scout project in 2019 and his project was not only meaningful to him and his family but for the entire community. His project consisted of building a wheelchair accessible path with ramps over the bridge in LaPrele Park and a concrete sidewalk that leads to Huck Finn Pond.

Tanner’s Eagle Scout project was selected by the Longs Peak Council, Boy Scouts of America as our local Eagle project of the year and was submitted for the Glenn A. and Melinda W. Adams Eagle Scout Service Project of the Year for National and the Western Region.

Tanner is a junior at Laramie High School and has earned all 6 Eagle Palms. "Scouting has taught me a lot about leadership. How to delegate and be involved with each person on the project, continuously communicating," said Tanner.

Tanner is interested in mechanical engineering or a S.T.E.M. field for a future career. He would like to attend University of Wyoming or Massachusetts of Technology (MIT). Congratulations Tanner!

2020 Fall Recruitment Zoom Event for Packs

Tuesday, July 28
6:00 to 7:30 p.m.
Via Zoom

Cub Scout leaders and families,
You might find yourself wondering how the fall recruitment is going to look like with all of the COVID-19 restrictions. Many things have changed when it comes down to gathering in person for Scouting meetings or even for family gatherings. During these times, more than ever we need to provide Scouting opportunities to our current families and invite new families to join the family of Scouting. Our fall recruitment is going to be very different than previous years. We need to work together to implement a successful recruitment, to be innovative and think of endless possibilities to invite youth to join. You might also need to be thinking of having a virtual recruitment event to invite new families and youth into our Scouting program.

Click here to sign up for the meeting and we will send you the Zoom link.
